CALL FOR SESSION PROPOSALS

2020 Conference Presented by APA-NM
October 14th-16th, 2020 Roswell, New Mexico

The New Mexico Chapter of the American Planning Association is seeking conference session proposals for the 2020 “Creating Communities Worth Caring About.” Please use the attached Session Proposal Submission Form. All submittals must contain:

- Session Title
- Type of session (traditional or 12 minute “power” session)
- Topic or focus area (i.e., complete streets)
- Session Abstract (400 words max) that specifies learning objectives.
- Presenter bios and contact information. If proposing a panel, please specify panel lead
- Equipment or audio visual set up required
- Conference setting based differences: Any notable considerations to account for depending upon whether the conference is virtual or in-person.

Session Types

Sessions should be proposed as either 12-minute TED-talk style or traditional longer-format panel presentations. (1.5 hours)

Determination pending as to whether the conference will be virtual or in-person.

Proposals that include multi-discipline collaboration are preferred

All submittals must be emailed to m.hildreth@roswell-nm.gov using the 2020 Session Proposal template. Faxed or mailed submittals will not be accepted. Some ideas for session topics include (but not limited to):

- Economic Development
- Resiliency
- Small town planning
- Innovation
- Transportation
- Environmental issues
- Equity
- Response to COVID 19
- Zoning
- Urban design
- Water
- Place-making
- Neighborhoods
